ENTERTAINING SOUTHERN VISITORS. A VETERAN OF MANY SCORES—COLONEL SEWARD AND THE 9TH REGIMENT.

trading being somewhat influenced by the depressing character of railway stock speculation. The range of prices and the total dealings were as follows:

THE RICHMOND GRAYS have accepted the invitation to make the army their headquarters while in New York, and Company A is hereby detailed to escort them thereon.

DISSATISFIED WITH THEIR UNIFORMS. There is dissatisfaction in Company G, 71st Regiment, because so many of the men are without decent uniforms.

WILLIAM SEWARD, JR., Colonel 9th Regiment. Colonel Camp has notified the commanding officers of the companies of the 92d Regiment that those which do not parade with 90 per cent of their total strength on Decoration Day will be consolidated with those that do.

PRIZES FOR MARKSMEN and Edward Frost, of Company A, 71st Regiment, and Corporal Samuel Whiting of the same regiment, were examined by the examining board.

THE UNDERSIGNED being desirous of showing his continued interest in Company C, 71st Infantry, N. G. S. N. Y., and promoting the efficiency of its members in rifle practice, offers the following prizes for scores made at Creedmoor during the season of 1888.

Colonel William Seward, Jr., of the 9th Regiment, has received a letter signed by all the officers of the regiment, urging him not to resign his commission until after the return from the trip to Gettysburg.
